Brief discussion took place regarding public hearing for Ron Long and the Market property. It was mentioned that as of the February Planning Board meeting the plans presented by Ron Long were not complete. The placement of street lights, hydrants, sidewalks, etc. was not on the initial plat. Finished drawings are needed before approval can be given,

Mayor Johnson read an email from Attorney Whiting regarding the outcome of the court appearance of the owner of 18 E. Main Street. It was relayed to the rest of the Board that the Judge would not order compensation for Village Attorney fees by the owner and that a follow-up court date had been set for July 9th. It was mentioned that the owner still needs an electrical inspection and engineers permit before conducting business or allowing sales to take place. It was suggested to talk to Dave Saleh and CEO Brian Schollard at the next meeting.

It was mentioned that “internet” sale transactions were taking place from 18-22 East Main Street. Trustee Sargent said he will talk to CEO Schollard on Tuesday regarding the status of the East Main Street property and owner.
